

RENOWNED WINEMAKING TEAM

Renee Ary

Duckhorn Vineyards Winemaker

As a winemaker, Renee strives for balance and harmony and is committed to making wines of exceptional quality that represent Duckhorn's distinctive vision.

Don LaBorde

Paraduxx Winemaker

Don's experience spans two continents and numerous winegrowing regions. Don combines a passion for viticulture and a love of blending to produce wines of stature and sophistication.

Dana Epperson

Migration Winemaker

A Sonoma County native, Dana practices a vineyard-to-cellar approach that combines her extensive viticultural background with her winemaking experience from multiple winegrowing regions to craft the refined and compelling wines of Migration.

Tyson Wolf

Decoy Winemaker

A highly skilled winemaker with an artful approach to blending, Tyson works collaboratively with the winemaking team to ensure that every one of Decoy's wines reflects the Decoy signature style, and its unwavering commitment to quality.

Michael Accurso

Goldeneye Winemaker

With a reputation for his viticulture expertise, technical know-how and blending artistry roots, Michael is continuing a measured fine-tuning of the Goldeneye's approach to making terroir-inspired wines that balance depth and power with Pinot Noir's natural elegance.

Brian Rudin

Canvasback Winemaker

One of the emerging stars of Washington winemaking, Brian practices a vineyard-focused approach to making wine, working closely with Canvasback's renowned growers to cultivate grapes that capture a richly complex and compelling style.

Mike Waller

Calera Winemaker

A Hollister native, Mike grew up just ten miles from Calera. A master of Pinot Noir, Mike has made Calera's wines for the past decade, continuing Josh Jensen's legacy of crafting distinctive Central Coast wines.
