

RENOWNED WINEMAKING TEAM

Michael Fay
Goldeneye Winemaker

Michael is a Pinot Noir-specialist dedicated to Goldeneye's mission of making terroir-inspired wines that embody both the elegance & wildness of Anderson Valley Pinot Noir. To achieve this goal, Michael ferments over 200 individual lots of Pinot Noir each vintage.

Dana Epperson
Decoy Assoc. Winemaker

With her Sonoma County upbringing and fanatical attention to detail, Dana is well suited to the Decoy winemaker role, collaborating with the other DWC winemakers, each of whom help guide their specialty varietals through the blending process.

Bo Felton
Migration Winemaker

Combining experience gained on two continents, Bo practices a vineyard-driven approach to winemaking that accentuates the character and complexity of the renowned winegrowing sites Migration partners with.

Brian Rudin
Canvasback Winemaker

One of the emerging stars of Washington winemaking, Brian practices a vineyard-focused approach to making wine, working closely with Canvasback's renowned growers to cultivate grapes that capture a richly complex and compelling style.

Renee Ary
Duckhorn Vineyards Winemaker

As a winemaker, Renee strives for balance and harmony and is committed to making wines of exceptional quality that represent Duckhorn's distinctive vision.

Don LaBorde
Paraduxx Winemaker

Don's experience spans two continents and numerous winegrowing regions. Don combines a passion for viticulture and a love of blending to produce wines of stature and sophistication.
