Winemaking: Decoy Chardonnay explores the diversity of the Sonoma County winegrowing region, while allowing our winemaker greater flexibility during the blending process. Over half of the grapes are sourced from the exceptional Russian River Valley and Sonoma Coast appellations, part of which come from the exceptional vineyards of Dutton Ranch, Charles Heintz and Pellegrini.	Tasting Notes: Showcasing the exceptional quality of the 2014 vintage in Sonoma County, this wine displays lovely layers of pear, apple and lemon drops. On the palate, the pure fruit flavors are underscored by crisp acidity and subtle hints of sweet oak that add length to the finish.
