

2014 GOLDENEYE ANDERSON VALLEY PINOT NOIR

GOWAN CREEK VINEYARD

Goldeneye Gowan Creek is the ultimate Pinot Noir for those who want a full-bodied, lush, rich, Pinot Noir.

Composition: 100% Pinot Noir

Market Trends/Opportunity: Pinot Noir luxury category is +31% vs. PY.

Winemaker: Michael Accurso

Winemaking: Two miles north of the Confluence Vineyard in the heart of the Anderson Valley, our Gowan Creek Vineyard sees appreciably more coastal fog. The unique terroir of this site brings together elements from both the valley's warmer regions and its cooler, northern "deep end". The powerful and expressive wine produced from these vines displays beautiful inky depth and robust, untamed fruit flavors.

Tasting Notes: Made in the style preferred by our founder, Dan Duckhorn, this wine exudes richness, depth, dark fruit and structure. On the palate, it is deep and lush, with layers of wild blackberry and plum pie supported by a streak of acidity that adds definition to the flavors, while drawing the wine to a lingering finish with hints of lavender, pennyroyal and Asian spices.
