2012 DUCKHORN VINEYARDS NAPA VALLEY MERLOT THREE PALMS VINEYARD

“Merlot’s Quiet Comeback”

“A small band of California winemakers who never lost faith in the grape are creating some of the world’s most complex Merlots.”

“Cream of the Crop”

“After sourcing from the [Three Palms] vineyard for 37 years, Duckhorn Wine Company bought the legendary vineyard early this year.

Duckhorn’s inspiration has always been Château Pétrus, the famous 100-percent Merlot from Pomerol. His team continues to benchmark their wines against it, aiming to make first-growth Napa Valley Merlot.”

“From one of the best-known sites for the variety in the Napa Valley, this wine shows classic structure, with an almost dusty quality to the well-integrated and resolved tannins. Concentrated, it shows a density of red fruit that remains in balance with its more rugged minerality, remaining soft on the palate throughout. Drink now through 2025.”
