2014 RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY CHARDONNAY

91
POINTS

“Migration, initially the second label of Goldeneye, Duckhorn’s Pinot Noir-focused outpost in Anderson Valley, now has its own home in Sonoma County. It’s a first wine in its own right. And though the focus was – and is – on Pinot Noir, it turns out, at least judging from this wine, they do a fine job with Chardonnay. This 2014 Russian River Valley bottling combines a delicate fruitiness with an alluring creaminess supported enough acidity to keep it interesting. It’s a ‘Three Bears’ wine – balanced and thankfully not overdone.”
